

CHARTERED MARKET TECHNICIAN (CMT)

YOUR FIRST STEP TOWARDS BECOMING A PROFESSIONAL ANALYST

INTRODUCTION

About the craft

Earn the highest designation in Technical Analysis called the Chartered Market Technician (CMT). CMT confirms excellence in the field of Technical Analysis.

Chartered Market Technicians Association (CMTA) oversees the program curriculum and administration of exams. Trading Heads is an authorized CMT Prep Provider which helps you to pass all three levels of the program.

CMT is the only technical analysis training designed by professionals, for professionals. The program provides the tools investors need to trade successfully on their own, or become a technical analyst.

Some of the best minds in the industry have completed this certification, demonstrated its value and increased its recognition. For those serious about technical analysis, this is a program worth considering because it will not only enhance your knowledge - it should also help you emerge as a professional..
